
New Gallery

Atelier Omiros is the new home to the oeuvre of the late painter, Omiros. He was a transforming artist in the 50s and 60s, when he spurred the minimalist movement with Yves Klein and eventually wrote his own pictorial language in art: Figurabstraction. Omiros, who only sold to private collectors, left a large body of work spanning over 60 years of artistic expression. In late 2018, Marlene and Peter Saile opened a gallery on Court Road in Bedford Village to exhibit the painter's work. atelieromiros.com
